ATTORNEY
David O. Leavitt

For Immediate Release

Date: December 02 2020

Re: Ongoing Investigation into the Knoll's Halloween Party

The Utah County Attorney's office releases the following update in response to continued public and media interest regarding health code violations at the Knoll's Halloween Party:

The investigation into the Knoll's Halloween Party is ongoing. Neither this office nor the Health Department can comment on matters under investigation.

This is an active investigation and includes multiple facets including working with federal agencies.

We anticipate the investigation will continue for many weeks to determine if civil action and/or criminal charges are warranted.
